The 2023 Painting Get Away ...

Spend 5 days with Leoni Duff, internationally recognised painter and tutor in pastel and oils... painting en plein air in various locations at Tasmania's beautiful Coles Bay and the superb Freycinet Peninsular, building your skills and confidence and having the opportunity to enjoy the company of fellow painters!

We will be painting each day around the Freycinet Peninsula and using some evenings for discussions, reviews , critiques and demonstrations.

We will explore the advantages and difficulties when drawing and painting outdoors & from life, examining the elements of planning, design and composition looking at various approaches to starting and finishing a painting and also exploring ideas and ways to interpret a subject.

We will work on skills of observation, tonal understanding and perception of the effects of light and colour...aiming to achieve greater awareness, confidence, creative thinking and development of personal style.

Some evenings will include fun and informative critique sessions and demonstrations. We will share a beautiful dinner on the last night and spend our days painting, painting painting!.

AND...

the extra option to be tutored for a day by the fabulous Tasmanian Watercolourist Rod Trip Gardner

Rod is not too worried about what colours you have – the above list is a guide, just use what you like. It doesn't matter if they are expensive, top quality or cheaper items. Some other colours Rod has in his palate are:

- Cobalt,
- Permanent orange,
- burnt umber or asphalt,
- Turquoise,
- neutral tint,
- Sepia

Pastel Sketch by Leoni Duff

Rod Trip Gardner will be a guest teacher for one full day... watercolour en plein air ...for those who would like to learn from a painter who paints outside every day using beautiful free watercolour techniques

I like to use mop brushes and Chinese calligraphy brushes (you can do a lot with a Chinese calligraphy brush - Launceston Art supplies has one for $20) and a 1 inch hake If you don't have mops.

- A small pointy synthetic and a liner brush.
- Car cleaning sponge two dollars- auto barn.
- Paper - I use Sanders Waterford 300 g rough paper and 180 g is also fine.
- Spray bottles from Shiploads large or small.
